

Underwritten by HM Life Insurance Company or HM Life Insurance Company of New York

July 15, 2022

RE: State of California Required Notice

The State of California requires that all California residents be provided notice of the right to request a confidential communication of their medical information upon initial enrollment in a health plan, including vision, and annually thereafter.

Please provide the enclosed notice to any new enrollees in your current vision plan who reside in California and include the notice with the Certificate of Coverage.

Should you have any questions, please contact your Davis Vision client services manager.